LIGONIER, PENNA. Here in olden days the French and Indians, the soldiers of Great Britain and the Frontiers, men contended for supremacy. Here General Forbes called by the Indians "Iron Head" centered his successful campaigns. Now a beautiful town in a still more beautiful valley.

Dear Ronald
Have rented Miss Olive Bowman's house and I guess I am. I have been real busy since
I got home as that is the only excuse I can offer. Yours truly.
